

DO SOMETHING REAL.
BECOME A POLICE OFFICER.

METROPOLITAN POLICE

Do something real. Become a police officer in London's Met and start a career like no other.

Do it to keep nearly nine million Londoners safe.

Join around 30,000 colleagues, working across 32 boroughs. You'll be pushed to be the best but rewarded with the satisfaction that you are making a real difference to our great city.

Do it to develop who you are.

The challenges of policing London are unlike anywhere else but so are the opportunities. You'll help people at their lowest ebb, protect the vulnerable and deliver the justice they deserve. You'll help prevent crime and catch criminals—whilst acting with the integrity that fosters people's trust. Most of all you'll do this as part of a fantastic team.

Do it for the skills.

We'll train and support you to develop the skills to keep you and your colleagues safe, which help save someone's life, to find and secure crucial evidence, or to tackle a hostile crowd with the right words and actions. As you patrol alongside experienced colleagues, you'll use those skills and refine them every day.

Do it for the opportunities.

Few career paths offer such variety. You might become a detective, or a public order specialist dealing with huge events and demonstrations. You could work with our dogs and horses, become a cybercrime specialist or support victims of child abuse. Ultimately it will be up to you to choose your path.

Do it because this is our capital city.

London thrives as a great global city and we believe that the Met should reflect the communities it serves. We're looking for people from all backgrounds to join us. People who can earn trust, respect and build positive relationships.
