

ART & PHOTOGRAPHY Plans for Year KS5 Curriculum

Year 12 Fine Art	– intro to Art 2D Students are given individual briefs to focus on their independent practical ideas and work through the assessment objectives. Student’s workshop a large variety of experimental techniques and practices to expand and challenge their skills and knowledge. Students will produce a variety of outcomes in 2D mediums, combining some of them and refining their work to produce final personal pieces of their own design.	– intro to Art 3D Students build on their 2D portfolios and study the work of 3D artists and select secondary 3D artwork to take inspiration from. Students will produce a variety of experimental outcomes in 3D mediums, combining some of them and refining their work to produce final pieces in a medium of their choice.	Independent coursework project Student’s start their final coursework project and have authorship of the topic and subjects of their study. Teachers coach the students through their studies with mentoring, students follow the exam board assessment objectives to attain the marks they need to achieve coursework marks.
Year 13 Fine Art	Independent coursework project continued Students continue their independent projects which culminate in a mock exam in December and give them their coursework result for their GCSE.	Externally set assignment AQA set assignment given and students pick which title to complete and complete preparation work until their 10 hour controlled period.	Externally set assignment AQA set assignment given and students pick which title to complete and complete preparation work until their 10 hour controlled period.

Year 12 Photography	Intro to Photography A level Students investigate key photographic concepts in order to understand rules and skills behind capturing frames. Students will improve their confidence using a digital camera, their editing skills using Photoshop and use a variety of manual editing and dark room skills to produce their outcomes.	Intro to Photography A level 2 Student develop their basic skills into refined mastery, building their portfolio through the through the study of and analysis of photographers and artists. They produce short projects through workshops and briefs including, portraiture surrealism documentary, fashion and culture.	Independent coursework project Student's start their final coursework project and have authorship of the topic and subjects of their study. Teachers coach the students through their studies with mentoring, students follow the exam board assessment objectives to attain the marks they need.
Year 13 Photography	Independent coursework project continued Students continue their independent projects which culminate in a mock exam which gives them their coursework result for their GCSE.	Externally set assignment AQA set assignment given and students pick which title to complete and complete preparation work until their 10 hour controlled period.	Externally set assignment AQA set assignment given and students pick which title to complete and complete preparation work until their 10 hour controlled period.